If a man says yes, the Spirit says yes.

Say the knowledge-holders, the best life is achieved by engagement with systematic process. The best life is built on systematic use of life-giving principles.

Say the knowledge-holders, all vibrates around the center, all proceeds from the center, all can get power, illumination, and life from the center.
